1) This form authorizes Decision Games to charge for the pledge price plus shipping and handling for any games I have ordered through the Decision Games Pledge Order Program. The charge for the game(s) will occur when printing for the game commences. Shipping of Pledge Order games is approximately 1 to 3 months from when printing commences.

PLEASE READ: When we need to update the expiration date of your credit card, we'll ask you to verify the last 4 digits. If any of your information (address, credit card number or expiration) should change, please mail in a new form with the changes noted by checking the box above. You only need to send this form one time as we will keep it on file for use any time you place an order with Decision Games or the companies it represents (Excalibre Games and SPW).

I prefer to pay by check or money order. I understand I will receive an invoice for each pledged game 3-6 months prior to the expected shipping date for each game and will pay this invoice within two weeks of receipt. Please fill out, sign and return via postal service the above form (excluding the credit card details).
